RZIERP B K

RxB P-KKt4

FOUR KNIGHTS GAME.

QUEEN'S GAMBIT DECLINED

OLD MAN GREENLAW CONCOCTS A PLAN

Further Entertainment Strangers of Note in Arkansas City.

THEY BECOME HIS GUESTS bassoon, an' two or three singers, an' a

By DAVID A. CURTIS.

"They was a doctor an' me had c'onaid'able of a d'scussion one time 'long ; someoin' he said c'ncernin' the value o' first 'ntentions," said old man Greenlaw with an air of great se f-satisfacwas mo' value into 'em 'n they was git as fur 's this afo' they gits busted up."

They hadn't ought fo' to be nothin'

"They hadn't ought fo' to be nothin' broken bones.

reg'lar ph'slcian, an' bein's he was gits to Arkansas City anyway. kin do if he gits cyarried away with though." them strange doctrines what's been Arkansas City, but they ain't none on twinkle in his eye.
'em proved up satisfact'ry when I "Sho' is, p'vidin' it's did by a 'vana bungstarter, they ain't. tryin' to interjuce 'mprovements in they useter.

Some on 'em goes so fur 's to say on'y what the Germans makes, an' they go lookin' fo' geres into nigh good wastin' of it." bout ev'rythin' a man eats an' drinks. that 'n they is in that fool notion o' the man I was tellin' about what said broken bone c'd be healed by good 'ntentions.

"Th' ain't no good reas'nin' with 'em neither. I says to that man what cordin' to the Good Book hell was full alg, an' all the blame fool done was to laugh like I'd been crackin' a joke. What's yo' own idee o' practisin' inquired Jake Winterbottom with the air of one seeking enlightenment, but Joe Bassett inter- poker started afo' they gits away."

ever hear'd what he ain't no his claim. I reckon he don't know no o' bout medicine 'n any o' we uns. What's the good o' list'nin' to his cheery "Hoodan-Ho o' hout medicine 'n any o' we uns. What's the good o' list'nin' to his cheery "Hoodan-Ho o' when we straightened out the leeche or out topsails years ago: "Whiskey Johnny!" kept up steady sheeting home the lagging clew; When those pittless sea bullies What's the good o' list'nin' to his d'pendence c'n b religious kyind."

But the old me to drink."

merriment in his usually serious gun. Them extry religious is the wust visage, "but they is a heap o' 'muse- kyind, they is, when they sets in. I'll now an' again. I motion he bet two to one we uns 'll take 'em into with tells us what kyind of a doctor he camp if they gits 's fur 's hyar." p'fers. Th' ain't nothin' diddin' just mought 's well have a little fun 's to lucky 's I be on side bets. I'd be Off our "Bully ship a rolling" had him going.

p'int is how it's mo' 'mpo'tant fo' to while tar should be heated. have a reg'lar ph'scian 'n what 'tis fo' to not have none at all. Don't have to go no further 'n a poker table to understand that. If the game is gwine to be played it ought fo' to be some het up while he's a talkin', but way is irreligious, an' even wuss.

mo' 'mpotant to him 'n anythin' else the sly. 'Xcitement al'ays helps trade." with quinine an' jalop an' a good shall lancet fo' 'casional bleedin' he hain't got no business fo' to set hisself up to be a poker player—I mean a this clan." he added, correcting himble direction of old man Greenlaw's saloon.

Saloon.

They does which into ashes cold I quickly forward the direction of old man Greenlaw's saloon.

My voice of silvery flutes and violing saloon.

Sings only to the impetus of gold. For which they do inexplable sing.

They does the provided away, nearly which into ashes cold I quickly forward the direction of old man Greenlaw's saloon.

good case of a man bustin' his laig."

he fust 'ntention o' curin' a man, comp'ments an' fo' 'em both to be sho' ears like the man hain't got much of an' come."

starter and Mr. Pepper stepped toward the door, but before he reached it Bas-intimate friends aside. sett exclaimed, "Have a drink, Pepper.

planced back and forth two or three the both on 'em comes along." lines between the glasses on the bar to be comin' to Arkansas City these the big table that was there he re-days? 'Pears like they don't nobody turned to the bar for bottles and clever can be. that lives hyar, the way things is re- the front room he went back to his reach hyar in a week or two, p'vided they ain't lynched afo' they gits hyar. They is givin' p'fo'mants in the rive towns along, but 'tain't what I' call a show. Mo' like a trav'lin' camp meetin' if anybody was to ast yo'."

Oh, I don't know," said Mr. Pepper. gang headed thisaway what's liable to another chapter.

asked the old man, his curlosity supof planting his indignation. Oh, I don't know," said Mr. Pepper. "I sh'd say what they was diffr'ent kyinds. One on 'em is called a 'vangelist an' he p'tends fo' to cure d'sease layin' his hands onto the sick, an' they is a yap what plays music with a big

"What kyind o' p'fo'mants is they?"

temp'rance talker. "They gits crowds together in the streets an' takes up c'lections. F'm That like motes adown the sunbeam what I done heer'd they been doin' Whirled to shadow and were sped what I done heer'd they been doin' tol'able dam well. Must 'a' picked up a sizable wad hyar an' thar, but they done left sev'ral places suddint 'count | Near the lake and Beghlar Gardens o' they bein' some talk o' lynchin'. o' they bein' some talk o' lynchin'.

'Tain't altogether certain what they'll git as fur 's this afo' they gits busted

In its corridors of stone, git as fur 's this afo' they gits busted And the arrow point insc

o' that kyind did prematcor," declared the old man with considerable heat. seen right away what he wa'n't no "They is 'ntitled to fair play till they o' settlin' in Arkansas City gits hyar we uns c'n judge if they is with a idee o' practisin' medicine, I reg'lar or not, an' if they ain't the seen what it was up to me fo' to d's- lynchin' c'n be did hyar as well 's anycourage him afo' he had a chanst fo' whar else. Mebbe they mought be to do no sich mischief as a doctor sho' some profit made outen 'em fust off,

"Is that thar layin' hands onto s playin' hell with the p'fession recent, sick man reglar 'cordin' to yo' all's They's been sev'ral doctors here f'm idee o' the medic'l p'fession?" inquired time to time what p'posed to settle in Jake Winterbottom with a quizzical questioned 'em, an' that's why they gelist," said the old man promptly. hain't never been none on 'em stayed. "They ain't no mention o' none on 'em The population of Arkansas City p'tendin' to be doctors in the Good ain't gwine to be trompled under the Book, but the 'vangelists done it suc truthless heels o' no newfangled idees cessful. 'Tain't scientific, but 'pears o' treatin' the sick, not 's long's I got like it works well if it's onderstood.

any influence into the c'mmunity an' "If this feller 's a sho' 'nough 'vangelist it's reg'lar enough, an' mo'n "Way 'tis o' late years, 'pears like likely he is, bein' 's he's got a temnigh bout all the doctors they is was prance talker along. Them finatics p'sessed with the idee o' what they works together sometimes. 'Pears like calls upliftin' the p'fession o' medicine. they 's some 'dvantages in havin' a some like them hellyons what's al'ays pardner, like they is in draw poker. "Speakin' o' draw poker. Consequents is they is a tinued as if following out a prear- Monstrous shimmering sea wrack and air hellova lot mo' people dies 'n what ranged line of thought, "just nachully s'gests what Pepper done said them vans had c'nsid'able of a wad. That 'd what th' ain't no sickness in the world, ought fo' to be kep' in mind afo' they's

"Mebbe they don't play poker," said Pears like th' ain't no mo' sense in Sam Pearsall as one who takes a grim pleasure in provoking unpleasant

"Well, I ain't never been 'quainted with no gre't number o' 'vangelists,' admitte the old man unwillingly, "but I reckon the most on 'em is mo' 'r less 'cordin' to the Good Book hell was full human, an' if they be, likely this un When the 'Hell when the 'Seven is place to go fo' to git cured of a broken diplomatic. But anyway they 'll be With hoarse through the blame fool done was c'nsid'able bar trade. Them 'tymp'rance talkers is desprit drinkers when they gits away i'm the awjints.
They'll be somepin' diddin', an' it'll be doggone queer if they ain't a game o'

Whether down the "Roaring Forties".

Off the Plate' or "Roantie Horn".

Thoughts the "chantie" lightened
Our black marches up to morn.

Through the "whale belt's" weary doubles.

Or "Aniar4u's" ice webbed lanes.

To the lill lift of a chantie webbed lanes.

To the lill lift of a chantie webbed lanes.

To the lill lift of a chantie webbed lanes. done lef' town suddint a'ter that." rance talkers is desprit drinkers when es? They is times when they drives es? They is times when they drives to drink."

"Mebbe th' ain't no p'tic'lar good into "Pepper, a buttin' in with 'bjections 's The great reef bands arched above in a savage fighting elinch. The great reef bands arched above in a savage fighting elinch. "Saily Brown" and "Johnste Baker" "Saily Brown" and "Johnste Baker" "Gripped us sternly by the throat." sternly. "Yo' all sho' is a spile spo't. "Boni?" rove the weather earling offers. Th' ain't nothin' diddin' just on the state of th

"Mought 's well be that 's anythin'. skeert fo' fear I'd win." "Mought 's well be that 's anythin'.

There seemed to be nothing more to do but to wait until the travellers should arrive if indeed they should arrive if indeed they should be a wait to wait until the should arrive if indeed they should arrive if indeed they should be a wait to wait until the travellers. shet." growled Sam Pearsall. And Bassett, seeing that his protest was unleeded, swore a little under his breath but said no more.

They all turned expectantly toward to wait until the travellers to wait until the travellers to wait until the travellers. Waiked the yards, hand over hand. Taking up the slack to windward come at all, and consequently Arkansas title and the big towing have came ending to the "Gates of Old Frisco".

Waiked the yards, hand over hand. Taking up the slack to windward to wait until the travellers. Waiked the yards, hand over hand. Taking up the slack to windward to wait until the travellers. Waiked the yards, hand over hand. Taking up the slack to windward to wait until the travellers. the old man, and to their great satis- Arkansas City awoke. Stirring scenes How faction perceived that he was glaring ensued when the performer on the big And at them with extreme wrath. They bassoon and two leather lunged vocalists gave a free concert on the levee.

Book is high 'bout c'rect when it says the place who remained away, and what a man's wust enemies is them (when after they had been regaled with Book is nigh 'bout c'rect when it says the place who remained away, and what a man's wust enemies is them when after they had been regaled with in his own household, mo' special when music the temperance orator began an impassioned harangue they listened to him with deen interest. So bitter inw down, wrybald mess o' pirates 'n him with deep interest. So bitter inyo' uns anywheres betwixt hyar an' deed was his invective aimed at all beliangone I pity them what's mis- who used strong drink that several of fort'nit enough fo' to know 'em. the leading citizens spoke earnestly to "But that ain't neither hyar nor old man Greenlaw concerning the adthar. I was talkin' o' doctors, an' the visability of getting rails in readiness played reg'lar or not at all. Any other they'll be a heliova large thirst goin' way is irreligious, an' even wuss. 'round a'ter he's quit, to say nothin' Now a man's health is c'nsid'able o' what he'll be a buyin' his own self on

It was as he said. When at night, They shouldn't be no liberties took with it by no pikers what don't onderstand fall the exercises came to a close with The with quinine an' jalop an' a good sharp | would lay hands on all the sick who

"To' all was a speakin' o' broken were at their height a small negrobones," said Jake Winterbottom mildly.

se of a man bustin' his laig."

Lo' co'se in that case th' ain't 'Rastus," said the old 'nan, giving him et natur' do the rest," said the old be a delegation o' citizens wait on him Now in my court the dreams of childhood on. "All this talk about 'ntentions up to the hotel in a few minutes to in' anythin' to do with it is plumb 'range fo' a s'lect awjents fo' him an' feelish."
"On, I don't know." said Mr. Owen Pepper dreamily. "If a doctor hain't dollar yo' own self an' give him my Yassir, I'll tell um," said Rastus. The old man reached for his bung- vanishing rapidly with a delighted

"Yo' uns wants to go an' git them that's the fust time I ever heer'd yo' fellers round hyar soon as this crowd say anythin' sensible."

Oh. I don't know," said Mr. Pepper, 'em in about half a hour an' open up but he came back to the bar, and the again after they've done went. I ad man, ever responsive to the call of reckon they won't be no vilence y, postponed hostilities, though he needed, but don't come back withouten end his bungstarter as if impatient at had closed his saloon and respond it the duration of the ceremony.

Before it was concluded, however, ing with them the two leaders of the Jim Blaissell said to Pepper quite travelling troups, whom the old man Tingles, not knowing how, yet wondering casually and as one having no great accounted with elaborate ceremony to casually and as one having no great escorted with elaborate ceremony to the back room of his saloon.

What show is they fo' any strangers | When all the others were seated a know they is sich a place on'y them glasses and turning down the lights in guests. What happened in the back room "Mebbe 'tain't 'xac'ly what 'd be called after that roused the wonder and ada show, but they is a tol'able queer miration of Arkansas City. It makes

POEMS WORTH READING. QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS.

Stranded when the seas recoded Ere the memory of man, Landlocked 'mid its lofty mountains, Storm tossed, wind blown, waste.

Underneath the sky's wide span. Noise of battle breaks and thunders O'er the wild tumuituous lake, And the brooding forests echo, And the sombre mountains shake Mighty formen reassemble Hosts and armies long since fled But the great winds blowing sunward Bring again the deathless dead!

Graved on cylinder and cone. Way marks, these, of earth's first people Ever changing, yet the same; Rearing in all lands the tokens Of the Garden whence they came, Which de barred to them forever By a circling sword of flame. The Last to Die.

When the last big gun is fired.

And the last man falls and dree,
And over the world is wired The news that the micrifice To the god who is God of Battle Has been made to the full at last; That men are no longer cattle, That the war of all wars is passed;

When the fair white flag is flying Where the fields of blood run re And the ears of the fallen dying Hear "Peace" by the breezes said. In their eyes will a question linger: But the answer they will not know They but followed a beckening finger Because Fate had decreed it so Wavering matty, uncertain, a Thought be-gins to agglomerate and sparkle on the eastern horizon of my brain. g with its mysterious power strange sea buried and air laden streamers. wrack from the depths of me.

And an Epigram is t BENJAMIN DE CASSERES.

The Passing of the "Chantle."

From the Attichoro Sun.

"Storm along!" and "Way-O. Rlo!" "Wot'nell!" he exclaimed. "I ain't no ph'sician. I reckon he don't know no mo' bout medicine. "Oh I don't he mo' bout medicine." Seemed far from satisfactory to the others. Mr. Pepper indeed went so far as to say:

"Oh I don't he but medicine." "Seemed out a measured pare when all hands talled down to busine liked the big yards up to place. "Sacramento!" greased the halliards with its cheery "Hoodan-Ho!"

own the gangway, with his duffifew Collins a roundelay, the passing of square riggers sed the "chantle" too away.

Grogog C. Bro

Elegy. Prom Life. The fackals prowl, the serpents hiss. In what was once Persepolis,

The 18 and sonce Persepolis.
In what was once Persepolis.
Proud Babylon is but a trace
Upon the desert's dusty face.
The topless towers of Illum
Are ashes. Judan's harp is dumb.
The fleets of Nineveh and Tyre
Are down with Davy Jones. Esquire.
And all the oligarchies, kings
And potentates that ruled these things Are gone! But cheer up; don't be ead.
Think what a lovely time they had!

ARTHUR GUITERMAN.

The City.

From the St. Louis Republic call me vampire, say it is my role sell my kisses, barter wanton smiles

Your gentler judgment, masters, may I stained night ealutes me now ns Queen.
d my realm—a fine and generous day, i on my brow a wreath of simple green.

Guarded by plans supremely, sweetly

It shall be written on the scroll of time. In script which all the ages will defy: Wanton of heart, or with a soul sublime— Such as ye are, my masters, such am I.

Life.

From the Atlantic Monthly. am I. Life? A thing of watery sait d in cohesion by unresting cells work they know not why, which never halt;

unwitting where their Master dwells, not bid them, yet they toll, they spin to bid which uses me as I use them, to I know which end or which begin, which to praise, which pamper, which condemn. So, like a marvel in a marvel set clever can be.

JOHN MASSPIELD. The Little Guardian.

a my nurse is away you shan't go in her room!" shricked he. n not in her room," indignantly cried little May, yet," Jack replied, "but your foot-

And they were.

MART E. HITCEGGE.

My father, Joel L. Rockwell, was years old when President Andrew Jack-sen visited New York. As my father was born in 1826 this must have been 1834. Jackson rode at the head of a procession up Broadway. He carried his hat in his hand. My father recalled that his hair stood up straight and thick, just as we see it on the old black 2 cent postage samps. Father stood on a cart belonging to his uncle, Anthony Allaire, who kept a butcher shop near Cortlandt street. The cart was at Cortlandt street and Broadway. Can you'tell me if the and Broadway. Can you'tell me if the occasion was the procession in honor of Lafayette, held in New, York on June 26, 1834? That, too, my father witnessed. A horse was led in the procession with Lafayette's boots tied one on each side of the saddle. Did my father attend two processions on with father attend two processions, one with Gen. Jackson at its head and the other who came to this country from La Rochelle. The beginnings of the family here are described in the first volume of The History of the Several Towns. Manors and Patents of the County of Westchester," &c., by the Rev. Robert Bolton. This work is in the local history room of the New York Public Li-

Replying to the query by Maxcy Robbins as to the query by Maxey Rob-beg to say that on September 25, 1908, as I remember it, a French-Canadia. as I remember it, a French-Canadian named Ed Moote, then in the employ of the Amsden Lime Company at Amsmoment of doubt, a groping in the den. Vt., made the trial of which Mr clouds, like a blind Dream searching Robbins speaks, although the task was a sudden crystallization, a furious swill of sea wrack and air wrack around the blazing nebula.

In a sudden crystallization, a furious swill of sea wrack and air wrack around the blazing nebula.

In a sudden crystallization, a furious swill find the limit of the l ought fo' to be kep' in mind afo' they's for an eye.

any action took hasty. Th' ain't no Then a sudden crystallization, a furious Maxwell Evarts was one of the owners completed his task with about two hours time to spare, and with over a half cord of wood more than was needed. The trial attracted considerable attention in the press of New England and a large number of people came to watch it, among them Mr. Evarts, Stephen Palmer, Samuel G. Blythe, Senator Spooner and other men well known in Washington. The cutting was done on in the pirth of Jesus Christ took place in the statute could not be sustained as one in the sear 4 B. C. How could that five spades. If these are not headed by to prevent fraud or deceit in the sale of possibly be?

> Will you kindly give me a brief ac-1914) at the public libraries.

Moroan. The attempt to date things forward the hand, two no trumps is the limit for second hand material if properly renotated by the dealers as the dealers.

was first made in $23 A. D. by a Homan one or the other of the minor suits at abbot. Dionysius Exiguus. He regarded once. It is easily possible for the no trumper not to make the odd trick even the founding of Rome. Early and he should have been only top glad.

The opposition will clear valed and decident, a trespasser, attempted to board a train in motion, in violation of statute, it was conductor's duty to prevent him from boarding by the opposition of the other of the minor suits at the other of the mi Christians had put it in the year of to be taken out with a five card spade the exercise of all reasonable means, insuit. The return to no trumps denies Hawthorne v. Delano, Iowa, 154 N. W.

Kupchik..... The abbot's belated attempt to date the spades, which is very bad bidding. | 590 founding of Rome. It is the 753d from the founding of Rome because, in intro- and looked at it. ducing his system Dionysius went back to the March 25 preceding to start his latest computation is that Christ was another card and the deal stands. born in the year 6 B. C. or the year 7 B. C.

Which is the shortest railroad, in which is the shortest miles, from New York to Chicago? The Pennsylvania; the distance by this road is 908 miles."

Connaughton. I would ask that, if pos-sible, you republish the matter, for if the Connaugation. I would ask that, it is a subject to the recollection of it has remained so long with my friend I'm sure many of your readers would be pleased with its readers wo

They are both tidewater channels and are best described as natural canals.

Anent the inquiry of W. M. S. concerning the "Convention troops": On No-vember 17, 1781, a sloop was found botvember 17, 1781, a sloop was found bottom up on the bar of Corson's Inlet, N.

J. Thirteen bodies were recovered and interred on Ludlam's Beach, all of them bearing, paroles showing them to have theen prisoners of war to the United States bound from Virginia for New York. Can some reader inform me who is really an opponent may not take York. Can some reader inform me who is really an opponent may not take where the name of this vessel appears? the trick when he could do so. It must be in some Continental return or document, but is not found in any T. C. V. asks if there is any text book highest integrity." contemporary newspaper.

Lusiad of Camoens and where can I obtain a copy? D. S. K. A list and estimate of the English translations from Sir Richard Fanshawe translations from Sir Richard Fanshawe all the remaining nine. For this t (1655) onward is given in Sir Richard claim 250, as it is a grand slam. and a good English version was also A is correct. The 250 is not for a made by J. J. Aubertin. It should be her cave made by J. J. Aubertin. It should be a great sun comes north; this my-

> Hugh Bonner died March 13, 1908, of orty-eight hours of his death.

SCHOOL FOR CARD PLAYERS.

Auction bridge. Mrs. E. says: The dealer bids two spades, second hand passes. I have no spades, but hold ace king and three small diamonds, ace and two small clubs, king and one diamond. His partner bids two spades, when second hand passes, and the dealer goes the only criticism must be of the dealer's bids. The takeout must be on at least five spades. If these are not because the statute could not be sustained as one the table: and backward from the birth of Christ the dealer, as the opponents will clear vated and sterilized.

things from Christ's birth was probably Poker. E. P. says: The deal com- Plaintiff, whose buggy was driven on J. Rosenthal inaccurate and the proper definition of pleted, the dealer picks up his own cards the Christian era is that it begins with and finds he has only four. As the next of a highway, might assume that driver and finds he has only four. 194th Olympiad and the 753d from the hand. The others object.

Encyclopædia (Dodd, Mead: 1915), the B is right. The player must be given L. R. A., 1915, E. 455.

The eight players and what they are drawing to have nothing to do with it, unless it is known that among their cands are one or more of the four that cases, but it is not permissible to ground cards are one or more of the four that if some reader can recall its substance. If you play a game which is not the The offer of a candidate for public Are the East and Harlem rivers really livers?

E. F. can decide questions of rule only by the livers and both tidewater channels and livered of the official game.

The office to turn back to the treasury all by the Supreme Court of North Dakota in Diehl vs. Totten to be a violation of 3 P-R3 Pap 14 P-Q5 R 15 Kt 813 Q devoted exclusively to this game. Yes, published by Brentano's in 1905. much to support the defendant's contention, to approve it would defeat the Burton's "Camoens: His Life and His bets that there is no such score except Lustads." Burton translated the epic for the bidder.

slam or it would be added to any other vices gratis."

In concluding the opinion the court lations from the larger bookstores such as (in New York) Brentano's, Scribticks on a bid that was of less value and inexperience, booked upon this action of the larger bookstores such tricks on a bid that was of less value and inexperience, booked upon this action of the larger bookstores such tricks on a bid that was of less value and inexperience, booked upon this action of the larger bookstores such tricks on a bid that was of less value and inexperience, booked upon this action of the larger bookstores such tricks on a bid that was of less value and inexperience, booked upon this action of the larger bookstores such tricks on a bid that was of less value and inexperience, booked upon this action of the larger bookstores are tricked in the larger bookstores. lowed to a player who makes all the said:

would combine with a "pair" of sixes, meumonia. He was then Fire Commis- instead of with "each" six, to make a worth 20, not 24.

Commuters who in their haste to catch which is not a permitted crossing of the tracks are held in Edwards vs. the New LOYER AND STUDENT Tour small hearts and three little clubs.

I bid three hearts to show I had no spades. My partner says I should have bid the diamonds, as it was the stronger suit. gence in case of an accident. The court with danything? If the dealer is Lemman Edwards, whose husband, tehman Edwards, was killed at Ridge-strong enough to start with a bid of two field Park, N. J., on December 29, 1911. that should mean that she does not care what you have, she wants to play the hand at spades, and the bid should be good for at least six tricks. If you have three outside tricks to help what more can she ask?

H. J. J. says: I dealt and bid a heart.

H. J. J. says: I dealt and bid a heart.

have the more deals you can play each time before changing. Here is the scheme for sixteen players:

being without money to pay additional of renown. Fox of washington to have been able to fully recover fare. Therefore, where a passenger was injured, after being ejected, by falling his Cambridge Springs form, and the scheme for sixteen players:

being without money to pay additional of renown. Fox of washington to have been able to fully recover fare, the through a treatle, he had a good cause of the participants. The Brook-form of action.

A. S. C. says: The dealer bids no trump, holding the quart enajor in hearts; K Q J and small spade; ace and two small clubs, king and are all enables ace and two small clubs, king and are all enables ace and two small clubs, king and are all enables ace and the person in the manufacturing of mattresses, quits or bed comforters and the local expert. Tenenwarters, which is the person in the manufacturing of mattresses, and the local expert. Tenenwarters, which is the person in the manufacturing of mattresses, and the local expert. Tenenwarters, which is the person in the manufacturing of mattresses, and the local expert. Tenenwarters, which is the person in the manufacturing of mattresses, and the local expert. Tenenwarters, which is the person in the manufacturing of mattresses, and the local expert. Tenenwarters, which is the person in the manufacturing of mattresses, and the local expert. Tenenwarters, which is the person in the manufacturing of mattresses, and the local expert. Tenenwarters, which is the person in the manufacturing of mattresses, and the local expert. Tenenwarters, which is the person in the manufacturing of mattresses, and the local expert. Tenenwarters, which is the person in the manufacturing of mattresses, and the local expert. Tenenwarters, which is the person in the person such second thand material is used is void, because depriving citizens of the lawful use of their property in a manner one games. It shows who beat whom and it gives not injurious or dangerous to others. It and who drew with whom, and it gives is said that while it would be proper to the total numbers of games won and lost compass. C. H. C. Said hand passes, and the dealer goes back to no trumps. They continue to back to no trumps. They continue to back to no trumps. They continue to overcall each other until it gets up to five no trumps, neither opponent making a bid. What is wrong with this bidding? absolute prohibition of a useful industry where such danger could be dealt with in time to avoid a collision, and that he was paying some attention to where the B. T. Black The dealer's hand is foul, as he lifted was going.—Muchibauer v. Klockner, R. T. Black

A statement made to a person in the I. Tenenwurzel. ear.

According to the New International only four cards dealt to him does not lift any of them, but demands a new deal. B bets it is not a misdeal.

A Statement made to a person to be presence of others, "All I want you to presence of others, "All I want you to do is to pay your honest debts," is held not slanderous in Hamilton v. McKenna, N. W. Banks.

"A more serious question arises out of M. O. C. says: Eight playing. A has a chance to make a straight, B to make one open at both ends. C to get a flush, avouched his faith in the State's case while D and E are each trying to fill. What chance has F to fill two pairs?

The eight players and what the world are selection of games from the masters' tournament is herewith appended:

DOUBLE RUY LOPEZ.

Perkins.

Chajes.

Perkins.

Chajes.

White.

Black.

White.

Black.

White.

Black.

White.

Black.

The eight players and what when the same is the property of the public prosecutor in his closing argument to the masters' tournament is herewith apmaterial selection of games from the masters' tournament is herewith apmaterial selection of games from the masters' tournament is herewith apmaterial selection of games from the masters' tournament is herewith apmaterial selection of games from the masters' tournament is herewith apmaterial selection of games from the masters' tournament is herewith apmaterial selection of games from the masters' tournament is herewith apmaterial selection of games from the masters' tournament is herewith apmaterial selection of games from the masters' tournament is herewith apmaterial selection of games from the masters' tournament is herewith apmaterial selection of games from the masters' tournament is herewith apmaterial selection of games from the masters' tournament is herewith apmaterial selection of games from the masters' tournament is herewith apmaterial selection of games from the masters' tournament is herewith apmaterial selection of games from the masters' tournament is herewith apmaterial selection of games from the masters' tournament is herewith apmaterial selection of games from the masters' tournament is herewith apmaterial selection of games from the masters' tournament is herewith apmaterial selection of games from the masters' tournament is herewith apmaterial selection of games from the masters' tournament is herewith apmaterial selection of selection of selectio In a discussion, the other day with a friend regarding odd pronunciations, my interest was aroused by his reference to an amusing case that was set forth in the Sun some twenty-five or thirty years back. It had to do with the name are therefore 4 in 47, or about 11 to 1 against his getting a full.

Cards are one or more of the four that cases, but it is not permissible to ground an appeal for conviction upon facts not given in evidence at the trial. We do not attach much importance to the offer of counse; to test the truth of his are therefore 4 in 47, or about 11 to 1 against his getting a full.

can decide questions of rule only by the usages of the official game.

G. Z. says: Diamonds are trumps and hearts is the suit called on by the player. B holds both ace and king. Which should be play?

in Diehl vs. Totten to be a violation of the corrupt practice, act disqualifying him from holding such office. In contending that the judgment against him was wrong the defendant, said in his brief.

good faith and with all law abiding in-tentions • • he is not morally unfit to hold office, but is possessed with the The court held that while there was

Five Hundred. T. H. S. says: Four playing as partners, the bid is eight most of the term of the previous incumpators, and B. One of the opponents, Y, wins the trick, and Y-Z win all the remaining nine. For this they claim 250, as it is a grand slam. A claim 250, as it is a grand slam. there would in truth be nothing vent some rich aspirant from offering to donate to the county treasurer huge

Will you tell how ex-Fire Chief Hugh Ronner of the New York Fire Department lost his life—whether on active duty or not?

Frank MCKENNA.

Hugh Ronner died March 13, 1998 of the taxpayers of his district and probably never for a moment realized the construction that would be put upon his words by others. As we have already said, however, the words speak for themselves and we cannot take appellance of the meeting of the taxpayers of his district and probably never for a moment realized the construction that would be put upon his said, however, the words speak for themselves and we cannot take appellance to the taxpayers of his district and probably never for a moment realized the construction that would be put upon his said, however, the words speak for themselves and we cannot take appellance to the taxpayers of his district and probably never for a moment realized the construction that would be put upon his said, however, the words by others. As we have already said, however, the words speak for themselves and we cannot take appellance to the taxpayers of his district and probably never for a moment realized the construction that would be put upon his said, however, the words speak for themselves and we cannot take appellance to the taxpayers of his district and probably never for a moment realized the construction that would be put upon his said, however, the words by others. lant's interpretation thereof. That be-ing the case, the best interests of all' concerned demand an enforcement of the ioner. He was at his desk until within fifteen. The four sixes and a nine are plain provisions of the corrupt practice

NOVEL POINTS OF THE LAW. CHESS FOR PLAYER,

Capablanca Fails in tablishing World's Record.

H. J. J. says: I dealt and bid a heart.

Fourth hand went no trump and I led a heart. My partner won it with the accident, however, instead of using the heart. My partner won it with the accident, however, instead of using the aforesaid means of crossing, proceeded, and then led back the heart, which I won. I can establish three more hearts by leading them again and have the queen of clubs to get in with. What is the objection to this play? We lost the game.

The court said:

The accident and that the approaching train had whistled. The decident, however, instead of using the end at an early hour on Friday mornacross the defendant's tracks intending to pass through or over a fence which was in a more or less dispidated concident and that the approaching train had whistled. The decident, however, instead of using the end at an early hour on Friday mornacross the defendant's tracks intending to pass through or over a fence which was in a more or less dispidated concident and that the approaching train had whistled. The decident, however, instead of using the end at an early hour on Friday mornacross the defendant's tracks intending to pass through or over a fence which was in a more or less dispidated concident and that the approaching train had whistled. The decident, however, instead of using the end at an early hour on Friday mornacross the defendant's tracks intending to pass through or over a fence which was in a more or less dispidated concident and that the approaching train had whistled. The decident, however, instead of using the end at an early hour on Friday mornacross the defendant's tracks intending to pass through or over a fence which was in a more or less dispidated concident and that the approaching train had whistled. The decident, however, instead of using the atom concerns the accident, however, instead of using the atom concerns the accident and the end at an early hour or had an early hour or heart and an early hour or heart and an early hour or heart an early hour or heart and an early hour believe, of James Allaire, who made the engines for Robert Fulton's first steamboat. Grozor L Rockwell, We have not been able to satisfy ourselves that President Jackson headed the Lafayette procession. There is no mention of the presence of Gen. Jackson in The Sun of the day after, nor is he mentioned in the careful "Crders of the Procession" printed in The Sun of the morning of June 26, 1834. This on the morning of June 26, 1834. This of the way, followed by the military under Major-Gen. Morton.

If Anthony Allaire was a cousin of If Anthony Allaire was a cousin of the Procession of the day after, nor is he mentioned in the careful "Crders of the day after, nor is he mentioned in the careful "Crders of the must have a big diamond to abandon the hearts and lead the programme says that the grand marshal of the day, Gilbert Hopkins, was to lead the way, followed by the military under Major-Gen. Morton.

If Anthony Allaire was a cousin of the day allaire was a cousin of the the engines for Robert Fulton's first to ground of the doctrine of a permitted drossing of a de facto path, rests on actual rights of way, or may sometimes to was one actual rights of way, or may sometimes to grounded on an established foot passageway—one not merely tolerated by it to be so used. In a comparatively rural locality like this, the doctrine of a permitted drossing of a de facto path, rests on actual rights of way, or may sometimes to was of was of a de facto path, rests on actual rights of way, or may sometimes to was of the doctrine of a permitted drossing of a de facto path, rests on actual rights of way, or may sometimes to was of a de facto path, rests on actual rights of was once, and as was stated on Friday morn- 34 P by McV. says: The recent interest in duplicate has led us to try it in various forms, but we do not know how to hand a individual tournament among twelve players meeting once a week for it the season. What is the best scheme? If the plan works out we might want to increase it to sixteen players, provided each could meet each of the others as a partner an equal number of times. Either scheduls may be played if there are meetings enough to give a fair number of deals in each of the rounds in which the same partners are together. For twelve players put these three indicators on the tables:

The fact that the path provided is test that the path provided is test to venture of a company invited passage where it had best guarded against danger, by bell and by flagman; and if from another index of the season. What is the best scheme? If the players provided each could meet each of the others as a partner an equal number of times. Either scheduls may be played if there are meetings enough to give a fair number of deals in each of the rounds in which the same partners are together. For twelve players put these three indicators on the tables:

The Supreme Court of Mississipping as the first of the receive of the conductor, to tell the passenger to inquire before going upon a train whether it will stop at the station, yet his ticket recites as his destination, yet his ticket recites as his destination, yet his ticket recites as his destination, yet his train will not stop, if it will not

Two deals at each table will require five evenings to play the 120 needed at the rate of twenty-four each evening.

A. S. C. says: The dealer bide no trump, holding the evening the five evening the five evening the five evening.

In people v. Wiener, in the Supreme Court of Illinois (December, 1915, 110 his profession and that he therefore could not play up to his full strength in the tournament. The checker champion, Black, was also disappointing. This might be explained by the fact that he was working daily in his profession and that he therefore could not play up to his full strength in the tournament. The checker champion, Black, was also disappointing. This might be explained by the fact that he was working daily in his profession and that he therefore could not play up to his full strength in the tournament. The checker champion, Black, was also disappointing. This might be explained by the fact that he was working daily in his profession and that he therefore could not play up to his full strength in the tournament. The checker champion, Black, was also disappointing.

-K -R4 -R4 -R4 -Q2 -Q2 -QKt3 -P2 -QKt3 -P2 -QKt3 -P2 -QKt3

20 B-K3 21 R-KR4 22 Q-Kt6 23 PxKt 24 R-KR5 25 Q-K4 26 K-R

Banks. White 27 R KKt 28 Q Kt2 29 KxR

DOUBLE RUY LOPEZ

35 Que Qico 19 Pxp R-KIA R-KIA RXQP I K-K3 Ki Kiz Drawn QUEEN'S PAWN OPENING.

КВ3 QUEEN'S GAMBIT DECLINED Rosenthal Capablanca Rosenthal Capablanca

-Q2 by each player. Furthermore, attention is drawn to the fact that the players are placed in the order of merit and that therefore it will be the easiest possible

A. B. Hodges

智 . . de

E !	8		1763	1929
Control of the contro	1	*20 3	53.5	7
٠. الم	*	Digital Control
		-
M	1		4	4

1. R-Q8, PxR 2 P -B4 h &c 1. R-Q9, P-444 2 P - K14 h &c 1. R-Q6, KxR 2 Q -B h &c 1. R-Q6, KxR 2 Q -B h &c 1. R-Q6, K-B3 2 P-K3 A 1. R-Q6, K-K3 2 hxK ch &c 1. R-Q7 18 defeated by means of K3, &c SOLUTION TO PROBLEM NO. 605. Solutions to Problem No 615 received from "W D. L. R." New York offer